

United States Representative John Campbell responded to a request for the most frequently asked general questions to his office with the following information. If you have other questions, contact cwalker@ocregister.com. Q: How may I contact Congressman Campbell's office to voice my opinions ab...

United States Representative John Campbell responded to a request for the most frequently asked general questions to his office with the following information.

If you have other questions, contact cwalker@ocregister.com.

Q: How may I contact Congressman Campbell's office to voice my opinions about federal legislation and national policy?

A: Congressman Campbell welcomes the opinions and comments of his constituents on federal issues that are of concern to them.

You may E-mail Congressman Campbell's office by filling out the e-mail form on our website at www.campbell.house.gov, or send your comments on federal legislation by postal mail addressed to:

Congressman John Campbell

U.S. House of Representatives

1728 Longworth House Office Building

Washington, DC 20515

You may also call the congressman's Newport Beach office at 949-756-2244, our Washington, D.C. office at 202-225-5611, or visit the contact information page on his website for more information.

Q: How can I purchase an American flag that has been flown over the U.S. Capitol Building?

A: Congressman Campbell's office can provide you with an American flag flown over the U.S. Capitol. This makes a perfect gift to commemorate a birthday, holiday, or other notable occasion. Flags are available in either nylon or cotton and come in sizes from 3'x5' to 5'x8'. All flags flown over the Capitol are made in America. Please visit the "Congressional Flag Request" link on our website at www.campbell.house.gov to fill out the online form or use the printable form and mail it along with your check to our Washington, D.C. office to:

Congressman John Campbell

U.S. House of Representatives

1728 Longworth House Office Building

Washington, DC 20515

Q: How can I obtain tour reservations for the White House?

A: The office of Rep. John Campbell is here to serve you when you visit our Nation's Capital. To get started, please fill out and submit the online "Tour Request Form" on our website at www.campbell.house.gov, or if you prefer, you can fax a printable form to my Washington, D.C. office at 202-225-9177. In addition, our website also provides information on additional tours, transportation and entertainment in order to help make your visit to Washington, D.C. more enjoyable. You may also call our DC office at 202-225-5611 for more information.

Q: How can I contact Congressman Campbell's offices to request assistance with a bureaucratic problem within the federal government?

A: Congressman Campbell's office is available to assist you in solving difficulties you may have encountered with federal agencies. In order to get started, you may either visit the "Help with Government Agencies" link on our website at www.campbell.house.gov, or call his Newport Beach office at 949-756-2244.

To request assistance by mail, please send a letter explaining the situation, and fill out the Casework Authorization Form located on our website. Please send your letter and completed form to our Newport Beach office at:

Congressman John Campbell

U.S. House of Representatives

610 Newport Center Drive, Suite 330

Newport Beach, CA 92660

Due to federal privacy laws, Congressman Campbell must receive a written request from the individual seeking an answer in order to contact an agency on their behalf. The letter should include your name, postal address and telephone number.